

Before and After School Program

Tuition Due Dates: 2021-2022 School-Year

Why is the same monthly tuition due for all months, including extended break months?

The monthly tuition rate is established based on the total number of days on the school calendar, using before and after school program hours, and is distributed over all of the school months (some months have more days, some months have less days). The full monthly tuition is due each month.

For more information regarding payment, withdrawal notices, and program procedures, view the Before and After School Program Student/Parent Handbook online at www.ankenyschools.org/before-after-school/. To request a copy of the Handbook, contact the Before & After School Program central office.
