Purpose: Students will explore and demonstrate their ability to find information within their textbook.

Directions: Use your textbook to complete the following questions.

1. What is the title of your textbook?

2. How many pages are in your textbook?

3. How old is your textbook (see copyright date)?

4. On what page does the glossary begin and end?

5. On what page does the index begin and end?

6. Write the 1st unit title from the Table of Contents below:

7. Write the 10th chapter title from the Table of Contents below:

8. On what page can you find chapter 5’s Chapter Summary?
9. Each chapter is divided into numbered sections with red, bold headings. What is the heading for chapter 4, section 5 (4.5)?

10. On what pages can you find Unit 6 Setting the Stage? What is the topic of this unit?

11. Describe what information can be found on pages 332-333. Is this information available at the end of each unit?

12. Let’s say I am interested in the Silk Road, a network of trade routes that connected ancient China with other civilizations like ancient Rome.
   a. What is the name of the unit that covers the Silk Road in depth?
   b. What chapter?
   c. How many sections are in this chapter?

13. Select a chapter in the book. Chapter number _______
   a. Using the glossary, define one of the BLUE boldface words from your chosen chapter.
   b. Using the glossary, define one of the BLACK boldface words from your chosen chapter.
   c. Find a figure or picture in the chapter. What is the page number it is found on? Describe in a few sentences the picture you have selected.